A wise old owl lived in an oak.
The more he saw the less he spoke.
The less he spoke the more he heard.
Why can't we all be like that wise old bird?

Kind hearts are the gardens,
Kind thoughts are the roots,
Kind words are the blossoms,
Kind deeds are the fruits;
Love is the sweet sunshine
That warms into life,
For only in darkness
Grow hatred and strife.

No decoration or art work allowed

Class 33 - 6th Class - written in JOINED WRITING - Dundalk & Newry Intershows Competition

Once Upon a Time,
There were three little pigs.
Their Mother sent them out,
To seek their fame and fortune.
Each little pig decided to build a house.
The pigs built houses of straw, sticks and bricks.
Along came the big, bad wolf,
Who huffed and puffed,
And blew down the houses of straw and sticks.
The wolf went to the brick house,
He huffed and puffed but couldn't blow it down.
And the three little pigs lived happily ever after!
